We are delighted to announce the forthcoming publication of Gringley: A Tribute to the 24. This is a new book, which features the 24 individuals on the War Memorial in Gringley's cemetery, and is published to coincide with the centenary of the outbreak of the Great War in 1914. We have done as much research as we can into the background of these 24 young men, the circumstances of their deaths, and details of their burial places and this accounts for ¾ of the content. The book also includes a couple of poems, maps and other illustrations related to the Great War.

As with our previous publications, the work has been done by club members and then brought together. We are offering these books at a heavily subsidised and unrepeatable price. It would be a great help to ordering the correct number of books to get in some early orders, and so we are discounting the £5 price to £4 for pre-publication orders received by 7th July.
