

Highlights will include a slide-show stroll through old Gringley, in over 100 sequenced pictures from The Green Pond to the Rose Cottage Café, and pictures (moving and still) of past celebrations and personalities.

Gringley History Club presents:

“SHOEBOXES TO ELEPHANTS”

21st January 2016 7.30 pm at Hargreaves Room, Community Centre

This is your invitation to come and hear how:

5 Years Research

+

20 Members

=

2000+ Archived Items

one 90 minute show!

The presentation will also explain how any historical information is now stored in a Databank, and how this data is accessible to all members and researchers of any type.

Gringley History Club

"SHOEBOXES TO ELEPHANTS"

You are invited to an illustrated talk and presentation about the History Club's collection of information concerning the village and its past. The talk will be given by Alan Hickman.

It will not be a definitive set of conclusions but an entertaining (we hope!) dip into our records and a colourful and illustrated report on our work in progress.

The presentation and fully illustrated slideshow will last about 90 minutes and include:

A glimpse into our Archives -

now over 2000 items

A slide-show stroll through old Gringley in over 100 sequenced pictures from The Green Pond

to Rose Cottage

Personalities, Celebrities and

Associations

Party times, past and present

Gringley on film and in print

The beacon and the Beacon

LOTTERY FUNDED

The presentation will be on Thursday 21st January 2016 commencing at 7.30p.m. in the Hargreaves Room at the Community Centre, and will include a short break for refreshments at about the half-way stage.

Admission free to paid up History Club members, £2 to visitors.

As the room is not large, guest attendance will be limited to 24 places only, so non-members wishing to attend would do best to reserve their seat with me, IN ADVANCE, by phone or email.

alanhickman@gohistory.org.uk
01777 817228